

Global Access Lawyers welcomes leading Belgian law firm Lydian, expanding European insurance law reach

Lydian's arrival boosts Global Access' strength in cross-border insurance expertise and client service in Belgium.

Global Access Lawyers, the alliance of six leading law firms supporting the insurance sector globally, is delighted to welcome Belgian law firm Lydian to its international network.

A recognised leader in insurance and reinsurance law, Lydian's addition reinforces Global Access Lawyers' strength across key markets and underscores its continued momentum, bringing deep experience across all areas of insurance and reinsurance law.

Commenting on the growth of the network, now seven leading law firms strong, Carmel Green, Global Access Lawyers CEO and Singapore-based RPC Partner said: "Lydian is a natural fit for Global Access. Its outstanding insurance credentials, collaborative mindset and deep understanding of the industry further strengthen the network's ability to deliver truly cross-border solutions to clients."

As a network, Global Access Lawyers focuses on four core specialisms: insurance coverage, insurance defence, regulatory and compliance and policy wordings. With Lydian joining, the network's ability to support clients in these areas across key jurisdictions is further enhanced.

Jan Hofkens, Managing Partner at Lydian, added: "Assisting insurers and their clients is a core specialism of our firm. Many of our lawyers have worked in the industry and bring a valuable insider's perspective. We're excited to join a network that reflects our values and offers a truly joined-up international service to the insurance market."

As a gateway to key EU regulatory and financial institutions, Belgium is a strategic jurisdiction for insurance clients with international operations. Lydian's presence unlocks new opportunities for member firms to deliver seamless support across Europe, with significant benefits for clients with cross-border needs.
